

2010 YWCA Race Against Racism 5K Route

Begins on Cruze Street outside of the YWCA Phyllis Wheatley Center
Travels West onto McCalla Avenue, which becomes Jackson Avenue into the “Old City”
Turns Left (South) onto Central Avenue and another Left (East) onto Willow Avenue
Willow will loop around back to McCalla Avenue and runners will head Right (East)
Runners stay onto McCalla until Martin Luther King, at which point they will take a Left (South-West)
The last turn will be a Right (North) onto Cruze Street

There are only four street lights and only fifteen intersections, most of which are all enough for volunteers.
